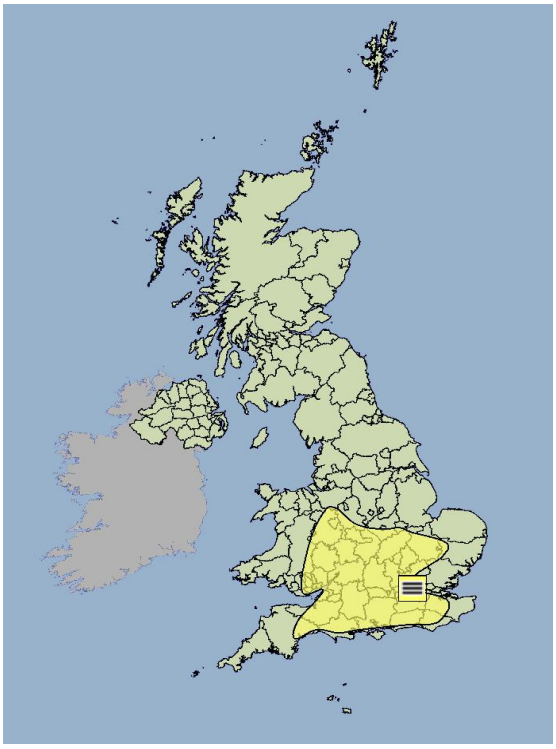
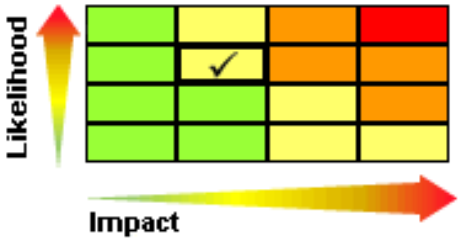
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Another night where conditions will vary quite widely across southern Britain - some areas staying cloudy and fog-free but again the prospect of some thick fog, at least for a time, principally to the west of London. The main uncertainty relates to whether the fog persists into the Monday morning rush hour, with the chance that conditions may improve from the east by then.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 16:00 on Sun, 18th Dec 2016 until 10:00 on Mon, 19th Dec 2016

Areas of fog will expand again this evening, possibly becoming quite widespread for a time and again locally dense. Please be aware of potential delays and hazardous driving conditions. Some improvement may take place by Monday morning, as thicker cloud edges in from the east.
